Hamlin moved to refer the following to the Committee on privileges:

Sprague objected and the resolution went over.

In the House Dawes moved to suspend the rules and adopt the order allowing an hour's debate and twenty five minutes each on the Tariff and Tax bill, when the House next goes into Committee of the Whole on that subject.

The rules were then suspended on motion of Mr Dawes and the House concurred in the Senate resolution for final adjournment on the 29th of May—yeas 156, nays none.

Congress addressed the House in favor of the Locomotive and Rail telegraph bill incorporating a company with a capital of two hundred thousand dollars, which may be increased to two millions, to develop the principles and powers of natural electricity.

Bingham spoke on the same side.

Willard contended that Congress had no right to pass such bills of incorporation, and without coming to a vote the House adjourned.

Gold is a commodity in which the metropolis largely deals, and the present season's product will run well up into the millions. POLITICAL NOTES

The motive that prompted the Blair and Brown device for imposing Greeley on the Cincinnati Convention is said to be the desire of these gentlemen to "kill off Schurz in Missouri." The B's are tired of buzzing about the coat tails of the intellectual colossus, whose growing greatness is dwarfing their diminutive proportions.

The Stern des Westens, the German evening paper at Belleville, comes out in an editorial against the Cundurango ticket. It denounces Greeley as a "temperance apostle" and "high tariff fanatic," and says Brown is a political weathercock, and that his nomination is an insult to the Germans. It says the ticket named seals the fate of the Liberal movement.

Among the "Liberals" swelling the Democratic crowd at Cincinnati, the Republican's reporter mentioned "N. C. Claiborne, H. C. Brockmeyer, Bart Able, David H. Armstrong, James H. Birch, Jr.," etc. The list also includes John McMichael, J. N. Edwards, and J. H. R. Cundiff, writers respectively for such "Liberal" newspapers as the Kansas City News, Kansas City Times and St. Joseph Gazette. Some of these gentlemen are very ancient "Liberals," of at least ten years standing.

Fenton's cunning was never more signally illustrated than by the child like and bland way in which he came it over Bowles of the Springfield Republican. According to Bowles' understanding, Fenton was working vigorously for Davis, and the far seeing editor telegraphed triumphantly to his paper that "Fenton and his friends will be probably frightened out of the Davis business by to-morrow, and the ring smashed." Meanwhile Fenton and Blair laid their head together and smashed all the rings with the Greeley and Brown combination.

Ex Senator Doolittle, who has done about as much bolting as any other man, and who favors bolting in the abstract, thinks there may be too much of it. In a letter giving his views of what should have been done at Cincinnati, he says: "Men who are bolting a regular party nomination in order to form a new party, can hardly afford to bolt before the new party is formed. Once bolting in one year is enough for all practical purposes." Liberal Republicans and Greeley Democrats are requested to cut that out and paste it in their hats.

A Card from Dr Brown

A SOUND DEMOCRATIC VIEW

PORTLAND, May 21, 1872.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

SIR: The Herald of this date says that I am an Independent candidate for the Legislature. If that paper will not misrepresent me any more I will feel obliged. I am a Democratic candidate and am able to discuss the questions at issue with any man or men on the Bogus People's ticket. I intend to show up this thing as it ought to be shown up and let Democrats see who are right. They can answer whether they are willing to support a sound Democrat or not.

G. W. BROWN, M. D.

Governor Gibbs and Hon. John F. Caples addressed the people at the Republican ratification meeting at Hillsboro on Monday night. A very large number of persons were present and the speakers discussed the political issues in such a manner as to win hosts of friends to the cause of Republicans. We have received an extended notice of the meeting, for which we regret we have not room in this issue and will give our readers some of the items it contains hereafter. A little freak of the Democratic Sheriff to disturb the meeting is looked upon by all the good citizens of Hillsboro as very contemptible.

Messrs Carpenter and Hammer have about fifty head of Cashmere goats on the farm of S. Syphert, near Salem. The most of them are of a cross with the common goat, but some are of pure blood. They recently purchased quite a number of them in California.

The Mine Inspectors in the anthracite region of Pennsylvania report the number of workmen killed during 1871 at 272. About one third of these were killed by the explosion of gases, and nearly one sixth lost their lives through their own negligence. The number injured was 622.

Great Swindle in Construction of the Locks at Oregon City

The Farmer a fortnight ago stated that it had information that the Locks Company were proposing to use wood in the construction of the works instead of stone, cement and lime as required by law. This was denied by some of the ring organs. But the Bulletin now comes with specific information on the subject. That paper presents what it assures us is a sketch of the identical plan of the work as drafted by the Chief Engineer of the Company, Captain Smith, and says it has in its possession the draft just as he made it. It then goes on to say:

The work will not be constructed of "iron, stone and cement," as the law and the contract with Jordan & Co. (the original contract) required. It will be constructed of wood, fastened with bolts and spikes. The western wall will be the earth and rock of the west shore on the bank of the river. The outer wall will be constructed as follows: The principal frame work is a scalene triangle, consisting of a tie beam of 8x12 inches which rests upon the rock foundation. The inner post is seventeen feet in length, and the outer post fourteen feet, and there is a middle supporting post of seven feet, all of which are 12x14 inches. The tie beams will be bolted down with six one inch iron rods. The tension rods to stay the inner and outer posts will be of one and a quarter inch iron, with the lower ends wedged to secure them in the rock and the upper ends to be bolted in the timbers. These triangular frames will be placed five feet apart, and the canal floor and sides will be of planking, four inches thick and one foot wide, fastened with spikes. The planking on the outside posts will be of three inch stuff, with a space of two inches left between each plank. And the hollow space will be ballasted with rock from the excavation. The depth of the canal will be fifteen feet. The shore wall will be the natural bank excavated to the proper depth, and the outside wall will be of wood! The work will therefore not be durable. It will last only a few years! And it will not cost to exceed one hundred and twenty thousand dollars! EIGHTY THOUSAND DOLLARS less than the Company receive from the State for building it.

In the face of this expose of the gigantic swindle which is being perpetrated by the Lock Company, what are we to think of Gov. Grover, who knows of the swindle and who winks at the gross fraud the Company commit and endorses their bold and wanton violation of the law under which they are incorporated?

A PLEA FOR SPECIALTIES IN MEDICINE

THAT THOUSANDS SUFFER PAIN FOR A [illegible] of years, (and [illegible]) with proper treatment might not only be restored to themselves, but [illegible] is too evident a fact to require [illegible] proof. This arises from the fact that the [illegible] found, or the general practitioner has too little time to inform himself of the rapid [illegible] in medicine and surgery, as a whole, and still less time and [illegible] for observations of a large class of [illegible] complaints. Thus, no man can [illegible] branch of the healing art, and [illegible] demanded for the highest good of [illegible]. And thus it is that [illegible] in this country and in Europe are devoting their best [illegible] Special Diseases, and to them, patients are [illegible] to look for relief in all cases which have [illegible] the skill of general practitioners [illegible] that long study and [illegible] special diseases must result in a [illegible] means of cure.

Such has been Dr Aborn's long and [illegible] of the eye, ear, [illegible] and chest, and so fortunate his discoveries of [illegible] cations of old ones, as have [illegible] one in that class of [illegible] an enviable reputation through the Union. [illegible] cure not unfrequently [illegible] the most despairing invalid, [illegible] the evidences [illegible] cures by him performed.

It is rare indeed that one medical man [illegible] cient attainments to enter a [illegible] more than one professional chair, and to perfect in the branch of his choice requires all his time and energy to the exclusion of all others. [illegible] study to successfully [illegible] in the practice or treatment of all branches of medicine. The little that he has learned of them all collectively must remain as little, if he attempts to progress in the knowledge of them all thereafter.

This is so evident, that the time is not far [illegible] fact the day is dawning now—when every [illegible] physician will devote his attention to one or more particular branches, or in other words, will have his specialty in medicine or surgery. [illegible] surgery has always met with [illegible] from their own practioners, and probably ever will, [illegible] a class come to [illegible] and cease to be [illegible] a trite remark—founded upon long [illegible] physicians are more [illegible] any other class of professional men.

A physician who is [illegible] febrile [illegible] experience in the treatment of [illegible] cases; nor can any one who remains in his office [illegible] exclusively, have any experience of value in acute cases. These are axioms, or self evident [illegible] that require neither [illegible].

Now, whilst Dr. Aborn is willing to acknowledge that he who treats fevers and other acute diseases [illegible] more [illegible] in such cases than [illegible], yet he begs leave to claim like superiority in the treatment of [illegible] to which he has [illegible] years.

Dr. Aborn, standing upon strict [illegible] towards his medical brethren, never [illegible] ill of the fraternity, nor [illegible] engaged in [illegible] a patient from seeking advice from any [illegible] may be his choice. This being a free country, Dr. Aborn holds that a man has a right to consult whom he pleases and to think and judge for himself, and form his own conclusions. Hence, if a patient consults him and does not feel disposed to take his treatment, he does not volunteer gratuitous advice as to whom he should, or should not, apply. There is quite too much of this ungentlemanly conduct among the profession, but from which Dr. Aborn intends to hold himself in the future as in the past, entirely aloof.

In reference to and in defense of, his course in advertising, Dr. Aborn feels justified in saying this much: that having devoted his entire time to the study and treatment of a few chronic diseases and having attained a success unparalleled in their treatment, he would be false to his humanity, were he not to make these facts known. The simple fact that "quacks" and "humbugs" (so-called) do advertise, does not militate against the propriety of sound, scientific and successful practitioners likewise using the columns of the press.

Moreover, there are perhaps but few intelligent medical men who are unwilling to admit that there are quacks and humbugs in the profession of medicine, who are licensed too and yet do not advertise thus openly. However nearly every physician has his peculiar method of advertising himself. Surely it is legitimate to advertise a specialty in medicine, if honestly and honorably done, and especially if the advertiser is competent to treat such cases with unusual success, as it is to use the same means to bring into notice an improved and labor-saving agricultural implement. By so doing the specialist benefits suffering humanity by informing them where they can be cured of their maladies that have perhaps for years or a life-time resisted ordinary modes of treatment, and the mechanic, perchance, relieves the husbandman of his burdens and lightens the toils of his hard-pressed man. Thus an intelligent and unprejudiced world readily approves progress and improvement in everything.

DR. ABORN, Physician and Operating Surgeon FOR CHRONIC DISEASES. Apartments, Cor Third & Morrison Sts, UNTIL ABOUT THE MIDDLE OF JUNE.

No Painful Operations. Dr. Aborn does not subject his patients to any painful or unpleasant operations. His treatment is mild, and safe for the most delicate child. The afflicted are hereby informed that after the first visit, for many of the diseases which he makes a specialty, they can take the treatment home and use it till cured, without pain or interruption to their usual avocations. my9dawtf

Two years ago the lawfully elected Republican members of the Legislature from three counties were violently and corruptly thrust from their seats And what was the reason for it? It was done in order that the schemes and jobs that disgraced the session might be ground through The will of the people was thus corruptly and violently overridden The whole results of the election by the people were set at nought And yet the party which did this has the impudence to talk about a pure voluntary unawed and unpurchased suffrage!" Precept and practice often fail to go together

Our 'Commercial' Independence

It is said that the only hope for the future of this country is to keep the Canal and Locks now under construction at Wallamet Falls out of the grasp of Ben Holladay and the assertion is made that this is one of the chief issues of the coming campaign Politicians who are reduced to any shift or expedient that can serve for a temporary purpose often exhibit great industry in manufacturing issues" to order The truth is that at any time during the last eighteen months the monopolist could have bought out the Canal and Locks Company More than that a majority of the stock has been repeatedly offered for sale to Mr Holladay and such an offer has been made to him within the last few weeks He could have bought it any time he would have said the word The fact of the matter is the way the Company have managed it they have an elephant on their hands This they discovered a good while ago and have been anxious to sell But the monopolist who as we are told has been plotting to get possession of this gateway of navigation, declined to purchase It will be utterly impossible for the company with the obligations of their bond, to have the work completed by the 1st January next They plainly foresee that they shall want further legislation and probably they have hopes of another grab at the school fund, in case another complaisant Legislature can be obtained

Since, then, the Canal and Locks Company have been offering for a long time to sell out to the railroad interest it does not appear how this matter of keeping the canal and locks out of the same hands that control the railroads can be a matter at issue in the election Mr Holladay could have had the Canal and Locks long ago had he wanted them Yet a howl is set up that there s great danger that unless a Democratic Legislature is elected, this channel of navigation will be thrown into Holladay s hands, and that the people of the Wallamet valley will be completely bottled up And this howl continues though the Locks Company have been persistently trying to sell to him and he has declined to buy Thus another 'issue is exploded Now for the next one

One of the funniest things in the Cincinnati burlesque was Carl Schurz s refusal for a long time to announce the nomination of Greeley Three hundred and fifty eight votes were required to nominate Greeley climbed to 300, 380 390 398 410 and stopped Schurz frowned He was supremely disgusted. He looked around to Ohio for relief, vaguely hoping that some idiot would move to cancel the ballot and begin again McClure rose, Schurz grabbed at the straw hoping against hope that Pennsylvania was coming to the rescue Not so A motion to make the nomination unanimous! Shouts of 'No!' all over the house, and a ringing negative when the question was put. 'It can hardly be so considered remarked Schurz blandly—and waited in vain for a motion to adjourn Finally, John Cochrane of New York, climbed on the back of a bench and addressed the chair Sir it is customary in conventions when a nomination has been made, for the President to announce the consummation Then Schurz with pallid face and gavel twirling in his flaccid hand announced that Greeley was the candidate

... Wenatchee ... how ... Astoria ... with the ... history and tradition of this part ... the State of Oregon ... back through ... Hudson s Bay ... the aborigines ... Cathlamet Bay does not commence as you come up the Columbia till you have passed Tongue Point a point of high land situated three and a half or four miles above Astoria and projecting into the Columbia from the Oregon shore more than a mile Hence as it is three and a half miles from Astoria up the Columbia before we reach the lower end of Cathlamet Bay Astorians cannot see how it is that Astoria is on the shores of that Bay But suppose it is on the bay what then?

3 If Citizen is not satisfied to have the pilots here in Astoria suppose he have a lot appointed to live in Portland Oregon City Vancouver Cascades The Dalles etc Then 16 to 20 feet draft vessels will go to those places without difficulty no doubt

4 Astorians agree with Citizen that a little money spent in surveying measuring depths etc of the Columbia from Astoria to Portland would be a profitable investment for all parties—provided the result could be published so that everybody interested could get a sight at them But what has become of the Government surveys of two years ago and of this season? Will they not be published ere long

For the benefit of the commercial and maritime ... of the papers at Portland I will say that the ship ... all who arrived here ... the 8th inst has discharged some 300 tons of railroad material here sent it forward in lighters to Kalama where the vessel is destined and where some of said reporters have had her discharging cargo for nearly a week—that said ship started up for Kalama on the 18th inst got four miles from Astoria to the Hogback at the entrance of Cathlamet Bay where she grounded at or near high tide waited till the tide fell six or eight feet and rose again when she got off with the assistance of one or two steamboats which were around her all day with their crews sounding for deeper water and returned to our harbor where Captain Packer prefers to rest his vessel rather than have her on a sandbar keeled over on her beam ends with a thousand tons of railroad iron aboard

6 If Citizen thinks it is boys play to take vessels of 16 to ... feet draft to Portland on Wallamet ... he had better invest $5 000 or $10 000 in such a craft and get a Portland or Oregon City pilot to take her up to her destination Then owners or insurers will not complain and the vessel will keep up to A 1

CITIZEN OF ASTORIA

A Brief Biography

HORNELLSVILLE N Y May 8 1872

To the Editor of The Oregonian

SIR—My attention has been called to an article in the Oregon Herald of April 19th written by one Loveridge formerly a resident of this State Mr Loveridge therein states the reason why he cannot support Gen Grant for re election to the high office he now fills with so much satisfaction to the loyal people who supported him while on the field of battle Allow me to explain why Mr Loveridge declines to support Gen Grant for re election In the first place he was driven out of the United States in 1861 because he was a traitor to his country His press and office were at the same time destroyed He was the editor and proprietor of the Troy News Previously he had been employed on and I think was part owner of the Schenectady Reflector and latterly worked his way to Waukegan Ills, where he was employed on a paper from which he was discharged six or eight months ago While in Illinois he procured a divorce from his first wife now a resident of this town and a most estimable woman and married his second wife there About six months ago he ran away from his second wife and went to the Pacific slope I have supported his daughter for the past six months though no relative of his or of the child

Gen Grant does not want the support of such a man Mr Loveridge cannot support Gen Grant for re election for the same reason that he could not support him while fighting his (Loveridge s friends in the field and that is all there is of it Had his letter appeared in a New York State paper it would not have called for a reply but as he evidently thinks he can impose on a community so far distant from the scene of his former disloyalty and disgrace I beg leave to state the facts in his case hoping thereby to prevent the impression getting abroad among our Oregon brethren that he ever was or ever could be a Republican or an upright man

In conclusion I would say you are at liberty to print my name with the above statement

Very respectfully

J W SHELLEY

CITY.

THREATENED ASSAULT.—A warrant was yesterday issued from Justice ... court for the arrest of a man named Humbel a vendor of ... who resides near the ... He was charged with the ... assault with a dangerous weapon From information gained the following appear to be the facts On last Sunday a gentleman accompanied by two ladies started for a walk to Robinson Hill They reached the summit and after roaming a short time started to return It so happened that the route led directly through the premises of Humbell To pass through the enclosure it was necessary to climb a fence Before the parties reached the fence Humbell came out of his house and not only forbade them to cross his premises but used some very abusive and threatening language toward the gentleman who insisted on passing through. This so exasperated the owner that he rushed into his house brought out a large pistol and threatened to shoot any one who attempted to trespass upon his grounds A warrant was sworn out and Humbell taken into custody by Constable Ryan

FLOWER THIEVES.—The latest dodge among gentlemen ( ) whose fingers are adhesive is to ... rade premises and purloin flowers The other night a gentleman who resides on one of the back streets lost a number of lately blown roses of a choice variety. The flowers were growing at the edge of the porch, and the numerous foot prints were discovered where the intruder had stood while plucking the floral prizes just within reach The fellow must have overlooked the fact that every rose has its thorn in his haste to secure a bouquet Did the temptation come in the form of an appreciation of fragrance the price which a ... bouquet would command, or a yearning to offer to some "ladye faire" love's tribute? We are generally not influenced by any such ... sentiments In these times people should ... stoves hot all night, or else they too may be ... off. No accounting for taste

A QUESTION.—A cotemporary raises a question as to the exact duties of the Chief of Police and Street Commissioner Before the inauguration of the new police regulations the respective duties of the City Marshal and Street Commissioner were pretty well defined Now the office of City Marshal and Chief of Police, while they may be similar in some respects, are quite dissimilar in others One thing is evident, that the keeping of the ... and sidewalks free from nuisances devolves upon both the Street Commissioner and Chief of Police. Some of the streets require immediate attention, and these two municipal officers ought to settle the question between them as to whom the duty belongs, and having settled it proceed to ... at once

SUBSIDENCE.—When it was thought that gold and silver bearing quartz had been discovered adjacent to Sitka, a great gold fever excitement followed. Specimens supposed to contain a large percentage of the precious metals were brought to this city, and sent to San Francisco to be tested So far, the examinations in that direction have failed to discover anything of sufficient richness to constitute a foundation for hope The excitement has suffered a decided subsidence since these not very flattering results have been reported to the Sitkians Several sacks more of the richest looking quartz were brought down on the Gussie Telfair on her last trip It will be shipped below.

DROWNED.—Harry Quinn one of the officers on board the steamer Gussie Telfair was drowned at Nanaimo, British Columbia on the 17th instant He had been ashore that evening and returning to the ship after dark missed his footing on the gang plank, and fell overboard An alarm was ... given but nothing could be found of the missing man. Next morning the harbor was dragged and the body recovered and buried at Nanaimo The deceased was a native of Belfast Ireland, aged 32 He has a widowed mother and a little sister in Ireland He has been employed by the steamship company for about two years with whom he has always borne a good reputation.

FALLEN.—Heretofore it has been currently reported that the ship A. M. Small is discharging railroad iron at Kalama, but such is not the fact It was found impracticable for that ship to reach Kalama on her arrival at Astoria owing to the stage of the water and the depth of water ... Two scow loads were taken from her ... Thus lightened it was thought she ... up without difficulty On last Saturday ... Small started in tow of the Merrimac ... aground above Tongue Point She was ... to return to Astoria, and will have to ... of more of her cargo before Kalama ...ed.

LIGHT AND LAMPLIGHT.—For the last few ... pale Luna has stepped forward and assumed the care and responsibility of illuminating the city Moonlight should be voted a benefactor, it is in the first and most important case less extravagant than gas or oil, it gives a better and more constant light, it doesn't blow out worth a cent, it requires no lamp lighter, and is a good thing with sentimental lovers Since it is so convenient and cheap why don't the City Council make arrangements to light the city clock with it?

GUSSIE TELFAIR.—This steamer reached the wharf yesterday morning at 7 o'clock from Sitka and way ports She brought a full freight list, and but one passenger The voyage is reported to have been one of the roughest experienced for a long time Snow rain hail and sleet falling almost continuously accompanied with strong winds and a high sea Two vessels were seen on the downward passage but were too far away to be spoken or recognized

"WALLAMET SOCIETY.—Lovers of an intellectual treat should avail themselves of the opportunity, and go and hear the lecture to be delivered at the new Masonic Hall, this evening, by Rev. Geo. Burton Mr Burton will lecture for the benefit of the "Wallamet Society and his subject will be "Limits of Human Knowledge"

FIRST WORK.—Yesterday the foundation for the new stone wall to surround the Court House block, was laid The work will proceed until the ... is laid which completes the contract The stone is brought from the Clackamas river to ... to the wharf and then transferred to ...

REPAIRED.—The new locomotive "Yamhill" ... employed for the past few days in drawing the passenger train ... and from Cornelius The locomotive "Multnomah" has been in the east side shop undergoing some slight necessary ... She will be taken out ... day

SUICIDE BY DROWNING

A rather remarkable case of suicide by ... ber ... drowning transpired yesterday evening when the steamer Emma Hayward was on her way down from the Cascades The occurrence took place a short distance above Vancouver

At the last term of the Circuit Court for Union county, a man named Edward Simpson was found guilty of the crime of assault with intent to kill He was sentenced by the Court to imprisonment in the Penitentiary for two years On yesterday ... accompanied by Sheriff Warnick of ... county Deputy Sheriff McDonald and ... prisoner named Dan Williams Simpson ... from the Dalles on his way to Salem Although known to be a desperate man it was never supposed that his desperation would lead him to contemplate self destruction He was heavily ironed (with a sixteen pound Gardner shackle around his ankle and closely guarded On the way down from the Cascades and a short ... from Vancouver Simpson desired the privilege of going down from the cabin to the deck Sheriff Warnick never dreaming that Simpson intended anything wrong allowed the request Leaving Deputy Sheriff McDonald to guard Williams, Warnick started with Simpson The prisoner led the way the Sheriff following but a few feet behind No sooner had Simpson passed from the cabin door to the side of the boat than with out the least warning or motive but apparently the ... of self destruction he leaped over the railing into the water So quickly was the leap taken that the Sheriff could not offer the least resistance to prevent the rash and ... act Simpson disappeared beneath the water as soon as he touched it, and was seen no more

The alarm was given and the boat stopped as soon as possible but all to no purpose ... weighed down by the shackle no swimmer could keep himself afloat for a moment After looking in vain for the body the boat came on down

The act was one that no person would commit but a madman and one determined on committing suicide Nothing further is known of the history of the deceased He was aged about 30 years No possible blame could be attached to the Sheriff or his Deputy for the unfortunate occurrence

THE RED MEN'S PICNIC

Yesterday morning the members of Multnomah Tribe No 3 I O R M after a short parade through the streets took passage on the steamer Okanogan which had been chartered to convey the Order together with their friends to the picnic on Sauvies Island A lively manipulation of red pasteboard about the wharf was an indication that a large number of persons were to join in the festivities of the day There was a crowd The East Portland Band accompanied the excursion Shortly after getting under way it was found that several disreputable characters had got aboard With a promptness that was commendable the objectionable parties were put ashore and for this act the remaining excursionists applauded the officers and members of the Order Arriving at the grounds at about noon lunch was in order after which dancing commenced and ... through the afternoon At 2 o'clock Dr ... Pilkington delivered an address This gentleman is an elocutionist of rare ability as those who heard his remarks can attest Herewith we publish the address omitting a few introductory lines

THE ... OF REDMANSHIP

Tradition points to Fort Mifflin on the Delaware river as the birthplace of the Order and that about the year 1812 its first council fire was kindled

The stimulating cause to the organization grew out of the bitter animosity which had been engendered between the war and anti war parties during those eventful years of our national history The spirit of hatred strife and distrust which ... fostered the two factions against each other was not long confined to the civil ... community but passing unchallenged by the sentinels made its appearance and disseminated its demoralizing influence among the soldiers of the garrison Some of the more influential and patriotic of the volunteers within the fort, viewing with apprehension and fear the threatened consequences to their country and its free institutions of the powers of discord and sedition working among them and rising above the level of party machinations to that of true patriotism, proposed and effected among the soldiers a secret society fortified by signs grips and passwords, the object of which should be to dispel discord and encourage friendship

No more interesting epoch than this in American history With British machination foreign gold disbursed liberally by secret agents of foreign powers who dreaded the growth of Republican institutions no more perilous period had thus far been known in the new nation's career Brothers, do not hesitate to claim, when you are asked as I was yesterday, Who are the Red Men to proudly reply we are the lineal descendants and successors of men who in the darkest days of our country's peril came with brain heart and hand to her relief and are entitled to the credit of preserving the freedom which we to day enjoy

The efforts of these founders were attended with the happiest results Where hatred and distrust had prevailed was now kindness good fellowship and brotherly regard—amity of sentiment and unity of purpose prevailing in every heart as the soldiers of Fort Mifflin emerged from the council of Red Men pledged to patriotism and paternity

At the close of the war the council fire was necessarily quenched the garrison being disbanded and returned to their homes But recollections of the past, the charms of an association so patriotic in its origin and purposes, and which had been productive of so much good in the past when the dark mantle of adversity hung like a pall upon the country, created the incentive to revive the order And accordingly a call was inserted in some of the Philadelphia newspapers for a council of Red Men which vested in the organization of what was subsequently known as the Tribe of Columbia of the Society of Red Men of Pennsylvania Such in brief is substantially the traditional history of the origin of the affiliation as preserved in the recollection of the venerable Incohonee Marley and which is to some extent verified by authentic documentary evidence

The Red Men of the present day, however are not prepared to limit the origin of the society to as late a date as the war of 1812 15 Indeed there is in the records of the society presumptive as well as external cotemporaneous evidence that it originated at a much earlier day and it is probable that it took its rise during the Revolutionary War and that the origin attributed to the Society at Fort Mifflin may have been but the reorganization of pre existing fraternal elements of the Volunteers for kindred purposes

It is to be borne in mind that in those days the Society rested on a political basis, and that whether we adopt the theory that it originated among the Volunteers at Fort Mifflin in 1812 or regard that as the successor of a still earlier Society existing among the soldiers of the Revolution National politics formed a conspicuous feature of the organization An old report of a committee appointed to inquire into the character and principles of an applicant for membership settles this question in the annexed emphatic words That he is a citizen of good moral character, and of uniform and correct political principles and is worthy of a seat in this Wigwam

The political history of this Order would be almost a history of the times in which it took its birth Suffice it to say, at this point the Order to-day has nothing to do with any question of a political or sectarian religious character

The Sacred Days of both the early as well as the Improved Order of Red Men to day are two viz the 22d of February and the 12th of May The latter was and is invariably observed as a day of feast On the morning of this day all Societies are expected to assemble at the door of their wigwams, and from there decorated with the insignia of their rank, and to the sound of stirring music take up their line of march through the streets of the city and proceed to some rural spot within convenient distance where the day is spent in social intercourse games and smoking the Calumet of peace and friendship

We have spoken of the political objects of the Order of Red Men It is known to every Red Man that to day the Order permits no question of political or religious cast to be spoken of within the walls of her Wigwams It is simply necessary to confess the existence of the Great Spirit and this is all that is necessary of a religious belief to admit the paleface within the sacred enclosure of the Order

It is an essentially patriotic Order in the broadest sense of the term and in celebrating the birth day of Washington as its other holiday it simply pays the homage which a distinctively American organization should pay to the greatest of representative American patriots

The Order as it now exists is a confraternity for the promulgation of principles of true benevolence and charity and for the establishment of friendly bonds among men Its name is chosen as expressive in the highest degree, of its origin and as peculiarly appropriate to a Society which has a history almost co equal with the history of the aborigines of the American continent Its emblems are derived from the highest and noblest type of the aboriginal races The beautiful language of the adopt ... is drawn from the ... impressive scenes on which the eye can rest when contemplating the works of the Great Spirit whose power and all pervading presence must be acknowledged and confessed by all palefaces who seek to penetrate the sacred mysteries of the Order and roam through our hunting grounds

To the Aboriginal Redmen how much do we owe? Never in the history of the world has a race of so noble a type been found in a state of Nature I of course do not include the ... the Pacific coast who are of a different type ... the old Naragansett and Mohawk to which the genius of a Longfellow and a Cooper have fitly done a justice They were essentially a religious people who recognized their Manitou or Divine Ruler in every phase of Nature His smile in the sunshine His voice in the loving ... in the gentle murmur of the wind through the tree tops and stood in awe of His power as manifested in the mighty tornado which laid ... the towering monarch of his forest home Their patience in trial their fortitude in suffering their unswerving fidelity to the claims of friendship their sterling regard for truth their contempt for effeminacy and luxury Where shall we find in civilization these qualities emulated? They as a race are fast departing from this earth With every grand son they sensibly diminish and in a few decades the American Indian with all his wondrous traditions his many virtues will be a thing of history Do we not owe something to this race ... nothing ... all that is great and noble ... their qualities be left in the land they ... Then let Rednanship ... should ... wigwam ... cover the ... and with its ... forgetfulness ... word ... all ... nanity ... Th... We ... own hearts have recorded ... their memories and their virtues shall never die ... der has become the custodian ... they have bequeathed to us ... the glorious heritage which the ... Never in the history of Benefice ... tution taken so ... In California to day the ... of the I O R M Nineteen Stations are represented by the Order

Some two years ago Multnomah Tribe ... raised the banner of Redmanship in this city since which time it has continued to wave A number of faithful and brave men have continued to gather once a week around her council fires and though they have not received the weekly accession to their numbers which would be gratifying to them and to the whole Order yet we can felicitate ourselves that peace and harmony prevail in the Tribe

CLUB MEETING

The regular meeting of the Multnomah Republican Campaign Club last night was well attended and stirring speeches were made by two gentlemen

The first speaker was Hon W C Johnson ... Clackamas ... being introduced by the Chairman ... He ... found ... and ... who were fighting ... what ... there was nothing ... He had ... the ground ... that they were ... changing their ... it was impossible to keep track of them Two years ago Jasper Johnson was going over the State of Oregon talking to the people and urging ... was then the tail of the Democracy now he was at the head and the ... of the Democracy were looking up to him and had sent him on to Cincinnati as the representative of Oregon in the great ... Convention The secret motive of the Liberal move is that its adherents have nothing to lose and everything to gain

His remarks upon the policy of the Democratic party in regard to citizens of foreign birth were very appropriate and well timed and no unprejudiced mind can say that they were not strictly in accordance with the facts of our political history The Democracy had professed great love for foreigners and deceived them by demagogism and political clap trap As long as the Irishman or German are content to vote them into office the leaders of that party were extravagant in their praises of the foreign element in our population but if one of these foreign born citizens by any means got upon their ticket as a candidate for office he was the man they traded off and scratched Cases in point were cited in the election at Oregon City a few days ago The average Republican vote in that election was 102 Mr Bonnett a German on that ticket received 101 votes showing that he received within ... of the full Republican strength The average Democratic votes in the same election was 105 Mr Levy a German on their ticket, received 71 votes thirty four votes less than the full Democratic strength and James A Dolan another candidate on the Democratic ticket received 66 votes being thirty nine votes less than the party strength This was but an illustration of the Democratic principle that foreigners are good enough to vote but not good enough to hold office He called attention to the platform of the two parties on this subject and made a comparison very favorable to the Republican party the party of progress for freedom and reform— the friend of all men and the champion of the oppressed of all nations

The speaker deprecated the threats of the Herald and other paid organs of the State administration as to the course Democrats would pursue in case the election went against them as it is sure to do and believed that the law abiding of all parties were of the same opinion on this subject While these threats were ill timed and reprehensible the free and independent voters will vote their sentiments unawed by such menaces and the arrangement of Gov Grover even to use the militia to Portland on election day, would not have the effect to prevent the people from condemning in thunder tones the infamous outrage perpetrated on our people by the passage of the Metropolitan police bill by which Portlanders are deprived of the right to say who shall be their municipal officers Talk about a majority of 500 or 600 when the question was up on an issue such as this the voice of the people should be unanimous in condemnation of such outrages upon their rights

His remarks upon the disgraceful arrangement by which the white men employed on the Locks at Oregon City were to be discharged immediately after the election were pointed and told upon the audience with marked effect Many points were made by Mr Johnson which we have not time nor space to put in print He concluded by likening the Democracy to the old maid who went out into the woods to pray for a husband After urging her petition for awhile an owl in a neighboring tree set up a screeching of hoo hoo hoo hoo The suppliant thinking that her prayer had been heard took the hooting as an inquiry as to her choice raised from her knees and clapping her hands, cried out Anybody Lord anybody So with the Democracy they were so anxious for the offices that they were willing to do anything or follow anybody to get into power be it Jeff Davis Horace Greeley, Trumbull or even Jasper Johnson

After Mr Johnson closed L P Fitzgerald Esq made some remarks very well received and he was loudly applauded

After the speaking a large number of names were added to the roll

The Club will be addressed to-morrow evening by Hon Rufus Mallory of Salem who is a fine speaker and we will look for the Republicans to attend in force

The good work goes on, recruits are being added to the Republican ranks every day, and the fighting editor of our morning cotemporary need not be astonished if his party is beaten by 1 000 instead of 500 as heretofore claimed

Last season a Horticultural Fair was held at Armory Hall There was a very fair representation ... but owing to an unfortunate ... the burden fell heavily on the shoulders of the few members It was the first affair of the kind and although it ... a failure still it was not accorded that measure of support and encouragement which the merits of the enterprise deserved The society have offered large premiums to the various articles to be on exhibition This indicates that the members have confidence that this generous and generally public spirited people will come forward and assist by their presence and patronage in sustaining the Fair Let every lover of fruits flowers vegetables and the mechanical arts furnish such contributions to this enterprise as in their judgment will promote the best interests of the society and make it one of the attractions of the State and a source of pride to the city We trust in conclusion that the press of Portland and elsewhere will lend the effort such encouragement as will insure its success

Married at Sea.

A romantic California pair of ... away lovers took a fancy to be married on the ... blue of the mighty ocean, regardless of the rise and fall of a palpitating ... ... ement. A steam tug was chartered and so was a clergyman and so the tw ... to sea in a tug putting the briny between them and all parental pursuers The San Francisco Chronicle gives the particulars of ty ing this sailor s knot:

From the pleasant valley of Santa Clara Miss Mary E Parr had been wooed by Mr John E. Davis. Lake Paul and Virginia, John had stuffed the gent'e Mary's craw with ripe grapes and crab apples, borne her across the Coyote—a dangerous torrent some inches in depth—and made himself generally agree able to the lovely rustic, and here was the re sult

O'er the glad waters of the dark blue sea.
Our thoughts as boundless and our souls as free

hummed Mr John Davis as the steamer cast off from the wharf and the blushing Mary gazed timidly yet confidently on the smoke stack And they were happy Once and only once, John thought he perceived a quiver in the neighborhood of Mary s eyelid He drew forth his handkerchief and whispered softly Don t weep, dearest!' She met his gaze with a world of affection in her swim ming eye, murmuring, almost inaudibly 'Only a smut, my soul,' removing at the same time the foreign particle which had been cast from the envious smoke stack As Goat Is land was left astern the rolling swell of the ocean was felt. Rev H M Henderson who was to officiate struggled down the hatchway to get into his togs, and the fair bride and the gallant bridegroom stood side by side The grand waves tumbled along boisterously and clambered up the vessels side to get a peep at the happy pair. The clergyman re appeared, clinging to the bulwarks and ex ecuting a brilliant balance feat with the book of common prayer, and the runaways joined hands

"And he stood calm and quiet and he spoke the fitting vows, but heard not his own words, and all things reeled around him Why did the bridegroom s cheek grow pale, and what boded that green hue on the downy cheek of the angel who was to pledge her troth to him? Why did the native hue of resolution' on Mr Henderson's lofty forehead become 'sicklied o er with the pale cast of thought?' Was the vision of another love looming spectre-like before the Davis youth? Did the bride distrust him who had chartered the good steam tug Joe Redmond to celebrate these clandestine nuptials thereon?

"'Will you, John Davis, said the clergy man, solemnly, take this woman to be your wedded wife?'

"'I will,' faltered the groom, and hardly had the words escaped his lips than he was ... over the side of the steamer, sobbing under the influence of the most powerful emotion and the discharge of a load of sand wishes he had taken in before his departure The bride, oh! where was she? Her beautiful ly molded head, crowned with glowing tress es, lay in ... despair in the lee scuppers her ... lips were parted, and she suffered deeply and acutely.

"The hapless clergyman had made a pillow of the book of common prayer, and was chanting the burial service at sea with mourn ful cadence, only interrupted by powerful and ... spasms

"'Come!' shouted Captain White, hitching the waistband of his pantaloons and turning the quid of tobacco in his mouth Come, my heart's of oak! Why, shiver my timbers and douse my tarry top lights! You re all on your beam ends Heave up, my hearties, 'tis your watch on deck Heave up and get spliced! Come, bear a hand!'

"Again they stood up to the scratch, and again were they prostrated. At last the trem bling and unnerved clergyman made them man and wife, and the Joe Redmond returned to the city with the lately wedded and much sea-sick Mr. and Mrs Davis

"We predict that it will take many months among the classic vineyards of Santa Clara before the remembrance of those lee scup pers and the ill-fated sandwitches are oblitered."

The Foreign Vote.

A COMPARATIVE STATEMENT OF THE VARIOUS NATIONALITIES

A curious series of calculations has recently been made from the census by a Washington ... ... first with regard to the possible political votes, largely controlled by senti ... of race or nationality may have on the ... ing Presidential election He says that the colored population, numbering in the ... 4,885,106, is the first point of import ance Calculating one in six as the average ... we shall have a total of 803 000 ... these over 55 000 are the Northern or former free States, and nearly 56,000 in the former ... States of Delaware, Maryland ... ouri and West Virginia In the States on which the political arithmeticians regard ... the colored vote is thus divided. New York 8,112 New Jer sey 5,109, Ohio 10,535, Pennsylvania 10 882, Illinois 4,793, Indiana 4,093, Missouri 19 678 The Irish vote is another element always carefully looked after. Their total population is 1,863,678, which will give 306 446 voters The States already named have about 188 000 of whom New York has 88,000, Pennsylvania 40,000, New Jersey 14 000, Ohio 12 000 and Illinois 20,000. Any serious change which shall seriously affect this population will be surprising in character The total German born population of the States is stated at 1 679,025, giving a voting population of 279 837 In the States named they will give the following votes Illinois 34,125, Indiana 13 011 Missouri 20 504 New Jersey, 9 168 New York 62,184 Ohio 30 481 Pennsylvania 26 708 West Virginia 1 040 The Welsh popu lation 71,004, with 11 984 votes Illinois has 3,145 of their votes New York 7 856 Penn sylvania 27,633, Ohio 12 939 Hitherto they have been strong Republicans The Scan dinavian population numbers 206 556 which will give 34,426 votes, divided as follows Illinois 6,142, and the other large portions are scattered in Wisconsin and Minnesota The Swiss population numbers 93 956 or 12 927 votes Illinois has of these 1 467 New York 1 318, Ohio 2 121 while Pennsylvania has 1 111 voters of this ilk The significance of these figures will be understood on exam ining the majorities cast in the election of 1868

A gigantic mastodon has recently been un earthed on the farm of Mr Ardon Mitchel of Otisville Orange county New York The skele ton will measure 14 feet from the bottom of its feet to the top of its head and over 35 feet from head to tail In its stomach was found a quant ty of undigested matter among which were fresh looking and very large leaves of odd form and blades of strange grass of extreme length, vary ing from one to three inches in width and look ing as if freshly cropped from the earth

Attorney General W liams addressed the people of Josephine county last week He spoke at Waldo, Kirbyville and the Junction House The people turned out en masse to hear him and wel come him home His speeches were rapturously applauded by the audiences

There are seventy four delegates from the vari ous Lodges of Oregon to the Grand Lodge of the I O O F at Salem now in session. There are also eight delegates from Wash ngton Territory and fifteen from Idaho
